Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ The angel Gabriel came to a virgin named Mary. [1:26-27]
- ☐ He told her that she would become pregnant and give birth to a son. [1:31]
- ☐ He told her that she would name her son Jesus. [1:31]
- ☐ He told her that her son would be called the Son of the Most High and that God would give him the throne of his ancestor David. [1:32]
- ☐ He told her that the Holy Spirit would come upon her, and her son would be called the Son of God. [1:35]
- ☐ He spoke of her cousin Elizabeth who had become pregnant in old age, and he said that all things are possible with God. [1:36-37]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. To whom did God send the angel Gabriel? [1:26-27]
   God sent Gabriel to Mary, who was a virgin and engaged to be married.

2. Who do you think Luke was speaking of when he mentioned a descendant of David? [1:27]
   (Answer may vary.) Luke may have called either Joseph or Mary a descendant of David. The Greek text is not clear.

3. What did the angel say about Mary? [1:28]
   He said that she was favored and that the Lord was with her.

4. How did Mary react to the angel's words? [1:29]
   She was confused by what he said, and she wondered what kind of greeting this was. (She did not understand why the angel said this to her.)

5. What was the reason that Mary should not be afraid? [1:30]
   The angel said Mary should not be afraid because she had found favor with God.

6. What do you think it means that she had found favor with God? [1:30]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps it means that God was pleased with her.

7. What did the angel say would happen to Mary? [1:31]
   Mary would become pregnant and give birth to a son.

8. What name did the angel say Mary would call her son? [1:31]
   She would call her son Jesus.

Luke 1:26-38 continued

9. What did the angel say about Mary's son? [1:32]
   Her son would be great and would be called the Son of the Most High.

10. Who do you think the Most High is? [1:32]
    Because Jesus is his Son, we know the Most High is God the Father. (God the Father is also called the Most High in other Bible passages.)

11. What would the Lord God give to Mary's son? [1:32]
    The Lord God would give Mary's son the throne of his ancestor David.

12. What do you think it means that he would be given the throne of his ancestor David? [1:32]
    (Answer may vary.) This seems to mean that her son would be king like his ancestor David was king.

13. How will this son's reign be different from anyone else's reign? [1:33]
    He will reign forever.

14. If he will reign forever, what do you think must be true about him? [1:33]
    (Answer may vary.) This indicates that he will live forever.

15. Why did Mary ask how this would happen? [1:27, 34]
    Mary was a virgin. (She had not had sexual relations with any man.)

16. How would Mary become pregnant? [1:35]
    The Holy Spirit would come upon her and the power of the Most High would come upon her. (This means that the Holy Spirit would come to her and that by his glorious power, she would conceive this son.)

17. How did the angel describe the baby that would be born? [1:35]
    He would be holy.

18. What would the baby be called? [1:35]
    He would be called the Son of God.

19. Why do you think that he would be called the Son of God? [1:35]
    (Answer may vary.) This seems to mean simply that he would really be the Son of God. This baby would also be called the Son of God because he would be conceived by the Holy Spirit rather than by a human father.

20. Who did the angel speak of in verse 36? [1:36]
    The angel spoke about Mary's cousin Elizabeth, who had been barren. She had recently become pregnant in her old age.

21. What did the angel tell Mary is impossible for God? [1:37]
    The angel said that nothing is impossible with God. (This means that God is able to do anything.)

22. Why do you think the angel told Mary that her relative Elizabeth had also become pregnant? [1:36-37]
    (Answer may vary.) He probably spoke of Elizabeth becoming pregnant miraculously to help Mary believe that God could also cause Mary to become pregnant miraculously.

23. What did Mary reply to the angel? [1:38]
    Mary said that she was the servant of the Lord. She was willing for what the angel said to happen to her.

2. Who was the governor when this happened? [2:2]
   This was the first census taken when Quirinius was the governor of Syria.

3. What did the decree require everyone to do? [2:3]
   Each went to his own city to be registered for the census.

4. Why did Joseph go to Bethlehem and not to some other city? [2:4]
   He went to Bethlehem because Bethlehem was the city of David, and Joseph belonged to the house and family line of David.

5. Why did Mary go with Joseph, and what condition was she in? [2:5]
   She went with Joseph because she was engaged to him. She was pregnant.

6. What happened while Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem? [2:6]
   The time came for her to give birth.

7. How did Mary care for her newborn baby? [2:7]
   She wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger (which was a trough for animal food).

8. Why do you think she wrapped the baby in strips of cloth? [2:7]
   (Answer may vary.) She probably did this to keep him warm and to comfort him.

9. What else do you think was in the manger? [2:7]
   (Answer may vary.) There was probably straw or hay or something like that in it for animals to eat.

10. Where does verse 7 indicate that the baby was born? [2:7]
    It appears that the baby was born in a barn or housing for animals, because the baby was laid in a manger used to feed animals.

11. What was Luke's explanation for why Mary laid the baby in a manger? [2:7]
    She did that because there was no room for them in the inn.

   They were greatly frightened.

3. Why do you think the shepherds were afraid when the angel appeared? [2:9]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps the shepherds were afraid because the glory of the Lord shone all around them and they had never seen anything like that before. They may have been confused about what was happening.

4. What did the angel tell them? [2:10]
   He told them not to be afraid. He said he had good news that would bring joy to all the people.

3:1-20

Background: The events in Luke 3 took place about 30 years after John and Jesus were born.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ The word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah. [3:2]
- ☐ John went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. [3:3]
- ☐ John told the crowd what they should do to repent. [3:10-14]
- ☐ When the crowd wondered if John was the Christ, he told them about the one who would come after him. [3:15-17]
- ☐ Herod locked up John in prison. [3:20]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. During the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar's reign, what positions did Pontius Pilate, Herod, Philip, and Lysanias have? [3:1]
   Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod, Philip and Lysanias were all tetrarchs of different regions.

2. What position did Annas and Caiaphas have at that time? [3:2]
   They were high priests.

3. What happened during this time? [3:1-2]
   The word of God came to John, the son of Zechariah.

4. What message did John preach throughout the region around the Jordan River? [3:3]
   John preached a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

5. According to Isaiah the prophet, who would tell people to prepare the way of the Lord? [3:4]
   One calling out in the wilderness would tell people to prepare the Lord's way.

6. Why do you think the one calling out in the wilderness would talk about valleys, mountains, crooked paths, and uneven places? [3:5]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps those are examples of what would need to be fixed as people prepared the way of the Lord and made his path straight.

7. What would happen when the Lord came? [3:6]
   Everyone would see the salvation of God.

8. Why do you think Luke quoted Isaiah the prophet? [3:3-6]
   (Answer may vary.) Luke probably wanted to show that John fulfilled Isaiah's prophecy. When John preached in the wilderness that people should repent, he was like someone calling out in the wilderness, telling people to prepare the way of the Lord.

9. What did John say to the crowds who were coming out to be baptized by him? [3:7]
   John called them the offspring of vipers. He asked who warned them to run away from the wrath to come.

10. What did John tell the people to do? [3:8]
    John told them to produce fruits that came from repentance.

11. Why do you think John told them not to think of Abraham being their father, and said that God could raise up children of Abraham from the stones? [3:8]
    (Answer may vary.) Perhaps John did not want them to think they were excused from repentance because they were descendants of Abraham. Perhaps he wanted to show how easy it was for God to have created them.

12. What did John say happened to the tree that did not produce good fruit? [3:9]
    John said that it was chopped down and thrown into the fire.

13. What did John tell the crowd they must do to show that they had truly repented? [3:11]
    John said that they must share what they had with those in need.

14. What did John tell the tax collectors they must do to show that they had truly repented? [3:13]
    John said that they must not collect more money than they were supposed to collect.

15. What did John tell the soldiers they must do to show that they had truly repented? [3:14]
    John said that they must not take money from anyone by force, they must not accuse anyone falsely, and they should be content with their wages.

16. Why do you think the people wondered if John might be the Christ? [3:15]
    (Answer may vary.) They may have wondered if John might be the Christ because they were eagerly expecting the Christ to come. Perhaps they wondered if John was the Christ because John's preaching was different from the preaching they normally heard.

17. John baptized people with water. What would the person who was coming baptize people with? [3:16]
    John said someone was coming who would baptize with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

18. What do you think John meant when he said that the one who will come will gather the wheat and put it in the storehouse and will burn up the chaff with fire that can never be put out? [3:17]
    (Answer may vary.) Perhaps he meant that the one who will come will judge people and punish those who are wicked and protect those who obey God.

19. What was John announcing to the people? [3:18]
    John was preaching the good news to the people.

20. Why did John rebuke Herod? [3:19]
    John rebuked Herod because Herod had married his own brother's wife and had done many other evil things.

21. What additional evil thing did Herod do? [3:20]
    Herod put John into prison.

4:1-13

Background: Luke 3:21-22 tells about when Jesus was baptized. The Holy Spirit came down on him, and a voice from heaven told Jesus, “You are my beloved Son. I am pleased with you.”

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus went into the wilderness, and the devil tempted him there for forty days. [4:1-2]
- ☐ When the devil told Jesus to prove he was God’s Son by changing a stone into bread, Jesus said that it is written that man does not live on bread alone. [4:3-4]
- ☐ When the devil offered him the world’s kingdoms in exchange for worship, Jesus said that it was written that all must worship and serve only God. [4:5-8]
- ☐ When the devil told Jesus to prove he was God’s Son by falling from the temple’s high point and letting angels catch him, Jesus said it was written that no one should test the Lord God. [4:9-12]
- ☐ The devil went away until another time. [4:13]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. Who led Jesus into the wilderness? [4:1]
   The Holy Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness.

2. How long did the devil tempt Jesus in the wilderness? [4:2]
   The devil tempted Jesus in the wilderness for 40 days.

3. What did the devil challenge Jesus to do if Jesus was the Son of God? [4:3]
   The devil told Jesus to command a stone to turn into bread.

4. What did Jesus say was written? [4:4]
   Man shall not live on bread alone.

5. Where do you think it was written that people do not live on bread alone? [4:4]
   Usually when the New Testament says, “It is written,” that means it was written in the holy scriptures that the people already had. We call those scriptures the Old Testament.

6. What did the devil show Jesus from a high place? [4:5]
   The devil showed Jesus all of the kingdoms of the world.

7. What did the devil say he would give to Jesus? [4:6]
   He said he would give Jesus all the authority and glory of kingdoms of the world.

8. What did the devil want Jesus to do? [4:7]
   The devil wanted Jesus to bow down and worship him.

9. What did Jesus say was written? [4:8]
   You must worship the Lord your God, and you must serve only him.

10. What do you think Jesus meant when he quoted that scripture? [4:8]
    (Answer may vary.) Jesus seems to use this as a refusal, meaning that he would not bow down and worship the devil. He would obey what was written in the scripture.

11. What did the devil challenge Jesus to do in verse 9 if Jesus was the Son of God? [4:9]
    He challenged Jesus to throw himself down from the highest point of the temple.

12. Why do you think the devil spoke about what was written? [4:10-11]
    (Answer may vary.) He probably wanted to convince Jesus that God would protect him if he threw himself down from that high place. The devil also may have been imitating or mocking Jesus by quoting scripture, and by using the scripture he quoted in a way contrary to its purpose.

13. What was Jesus' response to the devil? [4:12]
    Jesus told him that it is said that the Lord your God must not be put to the test.

14. How do you think Jesus knew that it was said not to test the Lord God? [4:12]
    (Answer may vary.) Jesus probably knew this because he knew scripture well, and because saying not to test the Lord God was part of scripture.

15. What did the devil do after Jesus refused to jump from the temple? [4:13]
    The devil left Jesus until another time.

6:27-49

Background: Jesus went from place to place, teaching and healing people. Some people followed him and became his disciples. Jesus chose twelve of his disciples to be his apostles. Jesus and his apostles came to a level place near a mountain, and a great crowd of disciples and other people came to hear his teaching and to be healed.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus told the people to love their enemies. [6:27-36]
- ☐ Jesus told the people not to judge others. [6:37-42]
- ☐ Jesus told them that trees were recognized by their fruit, and that people's words came from their hearts. [6:43-45]
- ☐ Jesus compared people who obeyed his word to wise builders who built on a good foundation. [6:46-49]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. How did Jesus say his disciples should treat their enemies and those who hate them? [6:27]
   They should love their enemies and do good to those who hate them.

2. How did Jesus say a disciple should respond to someone who cursed him? [6:28]
   The disciple should bless anyone who cursed him.

3. What should a disciple do if someone hit him on his cheek? [6:29]
   The disciple should let that person hit his other cheek too.

4. What should a disciple do if someone took away something that belonged to the disciple? [6:30]
   The disciple should not ask the person to give it back.

5. How should Jesus' disciples treat people? [6:31]
   They should treat people the same way they wanted people to treat them.

6. What do you think Jesus meant in verses 32, 33, and 34? [6:32-34]
   (Answer may vary.) Jesus seems to be saying that his disciples would not be rewarded for loving only people who loved them, for doing good only to people who did good to them, and for lending only to people they think would pay them back. Even sinners did all those things.

7. What is the Most High's attitude toward unthankful and evil people? [6:35-36]
   The Most High is kind and merciful toward them.

8. Who do you think Jesus was referring to when he spoke of the Most High? [6:35-36]
   This passage indicates that Jesus was referring to God the Father. (Other passages indicate this as a name for God the Father, too.)

9. What were Jesus' commands in verse 37? [6:37]
   Do not judge. Do not condemn. Instead, forgive people.

10. What do you think Jesus meant when he said that the amount given would be pressed down, shaken together, and spilling over? [6:38]
    (Answer may vary.) These seem to be different ways of saying the same thing: the amount would be a lot.

11. What do you think Jesus meant when he said that with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you? [6:38]
    (Answer may vary.) This indicates that people would be given to in the same way that they gave to others. If they gave generously, they would be generously given to. If they were stingy, they would receive little.

12. Why can't a blind person lead a blind person? [6:39]
    If he did, they would both fall into a pit.

13. What can a disciple hope for? [6:40]
    He can hope to be like his teacher.

14. What did Jesus call the kind of person who had a log in his own eye and offered to take a piece of straw out of someone else's eye? [6:42]
    Jesus called that kind of person a hypocrite.

15. What should a disciple do before trying to take a piece of straw out of someone else's eye? [6:42]
    He should first remove the log from his own eye.

16. What do you think Jesus was talking about when he spoke about taking pieces of straw out of people's eyes? [6:41-42]
    (Answer may vary.) Perhaps Jesus was talking about seeing people's faults and trying to make them change.

17. What did Jesus say about good trees and bad trees? [6:43]
    Good trees did not produce rotten fruit, and rotten trees did not produce good fruit.

18. How did people recognize a tree? [6:44]
    They recognized a tree by the kind of fruit it produced.

19. How did a good man produce what was good? [6:45]
    He produced it from the good treasure in his heart.

20. How do you think that a person's behavior was like a tree's fruit? [6:43-45]
    (Answer may vary.) Behavior might indicate what kind of person that was. Or, just as a tree's fruit showed the quality of the tree, a person's behavior might show the quality of what was in his heart.

21. What did Jesus rebuke people for? [6:46]
    He rebuked them for calling him Lord and not obeying what he said.

22. Who was like a man who dug down deep and built the foundation of a house on solid rock? [6:47-48]
    Whoever heard Jesus' words and obeyed them was like a man who dug down deep and built the foundation on solid rock.

23. Who was like a man who built a house on top of the ground without a foundation? [6:49]
    Whoever heard Jesus' words and did not obey them was like a man who built a house without a foundation.

24. What happened to the house that was built on top of the ground without a foundation? [6:49]
    When a torrent of water flowed against the house, the house collapsed and was ruined.

25. What do you think Jesus meant when he said that a person who obeyed his words was like a person who built a good foundation for his house? [6:47-49]
    (Answer may vary.) Perhaps Jesus meant that when troubles came, the person who obeyed Jesus' words would not be ruined. Or perhaps he meant that the person's faith in God would remain strong.

10:21-22

Background: Jesus sent his disciples to the towns to heal people and to teach them about the kingdom of God. When they had done this, they returned to Jesus, saying, “Lord, even the demons submitted in your name.” Jesus taught them to rejoice that their names are written in heaven.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus praised his Father for hiding things from the wise but revealing them to little children. [10:21]
- ☐ The Father had entrusted those things to Jesus. [10:22]
- ☐ No one knew who the Son was except the Father, and no one knew who the Father was except the Son and those to whom the Son revealed him. [10:22]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. In whom did Jesus rejoice? [10:21]
   He rejoiced in the Holy Spirit.

2. What did Jesus call his Father? [10:21]
   He called his Father the Lord of heaven and earth.

3. Who do you think is the Lord of heaven and earth? [10:21]
   Because Jesus addressed his Father this way, we know the Lord of heaven and earth is God the Father.

4. Who knows who the Son is? [10:22]
   Only the Father knows who the Son is.

5. Who knows who the Father is? [10:22]
   Only the Son, and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him, know who the Father is.

6. Who do you think Jesus was talking about when he spoke about the Son? [10:22]
   This passage indicates that he was talking about himself.

Comment Section:

10:25-37

Background: In this passage Jesus told a parable. One of the men was a Jewish priest, and one was a Levite. The Levites were not as important as the priests, but they also worked in the temple. Another man in the parable was a Samaritan, a man from Samaria. The Jews and the Samaritans hated each other because they had different religious beliefs.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus said that to inherit eternal life, one must love God and love his neighbor. [10:25-27]
- ☐ An expert in the law asked Jesus who was his neighbor. [10:25, 29]
- ☐ Jesus told a parable about a Samaritan man who helped an injured man when important Jews did not. [10:29-35]
- ☐ After telling the parable, Jesus told the expert in the law to show mercy like the Samaritan in the parable. [10:37]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. Why did the expert in the law ask Jesus how to inherit eternal life? [10:25]
   He was trying to test Jesus.

2. How do you think this question was testing Jesus? [10:25]
   (Answer may vary.) Maybe the expert in the law wanted to see what Jesus knew, or maybe he hoped Jesus would say something contrary to scripture so he could accuse him of blasphemy.

3. How did Jesus respond to the expert? [10:26]
   He asked the expert what the law said to do.

4. How did the expert answer Jesus? [10:27]
   He said that the law said to love God with all your heart, soul, strength, and mind and to love your neighbor as yourself.

5. What did Jesus say about this answer? [10:28]
   He told the expert that he had answered well. He said that the expert should do that and he would live.

6. Why did the expert ask Jesus who his neighbor was? [10:29]
   He wanted to justify himself (that is, he wanted to show that he was a righteous person).

7. How do you think asking the question would enable the expert to justify himself? [10:29]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps the expert wanted Jesus to say that only some people were his neighbors and that he did not have to love the others.

8. In Jesus' parable, what did the Jewish priest and the Levite do when they saw the man who was almost dead on the road? [10:31-32]
   They passed by on the other side of the road.

9. What did the Samaritan do when he saw the man? [10:33-34]
   He had compassion, so he bound up the man's wounds, put him on his animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

10. How did the Samaritan continue to take care of the man when he needed to leave the inn? [10:35]
    The Samaritan left money with the innkeeper. He also said he would pay more, if it was needed, when he returned.

11. Who had Jesus proved to be a neighbor to the man? [10:36-37]
    The one who showed mercy was a neighbor to him.

12. After telling the parable, what did Jesus tell the expert in the law to go and do? [10:37]
    Jesus told him to show mercy as the Samaritan in the parable did.

13. What do you think was surprising in Jesus' parable? [10:25-37]
    (Answer may vary.) It was probably surprising to Jesus' hearers that the religious leaders in the story did not do the right thing, but the Samaritan did.

14. From this passage, who do you think Jesus meant his hearers should love? [10:25-37]
    (Answer may vary.) Jesus had shown by the example of the Samaritan that all people could be neighbors to each other. This indicates that they should love all their fellow human beings, even their enemies.

Background: After Jesus made a demon leave a man, some people said that Jesus did that by the power of the ruler of demons. Then other people tested Jesus and demanded that he give them a sign that would prove that he was really from God.

When Jesus replied in 11:29-32, he spoke about Jonah and the Queen of the South. Long ago God had sent the Jewish prophet Jonah to warn the people of Nineveh that God would punish them for their sins. Also long ago, when Solomon was king of Israel, the queen of another country traveled a great distance to listen to Solomon.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Jesus said there would be no sign except the sign of Jonah. [11:29]
- ☐ Jesus said the Queen of the South and the men of Nineveh would condemn this generation. [11:30-32]
- ☐ Jesus warned the crowd to be careful that what they take in was light, not darkness. [11:34-35]
- ☐ Jesus said that a person who was full of light would be bright as when a light shone on them. [11:36]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. Why did Jesus say that the generation of people he was talking to was evil? [11:29]
   He said they were evil because they continued to seek a sign from Jesus.

2. What was the only sign that would be given to that generation? [11:29]
   Only the sign of Jonah would be given.

3. Who do you think Jesus was talking about when he said that the Son of Man would be a sign to that generation? [11:30]
   (Answer may vary.) In other passages, Jesus speaks of himself as the Son of Man. This indicates that he was talking about himself here, as well. He seems to be saying that they do not need to look any further than seeing him to believe, because he is the sign himself.

4. What will the Queen of the South do? [11:31]
   She will rise up and condemn that generation.

5. Why will men of Nineveh condemn that generation on the day of judgment? [11:32]
   The men of Nineveh repented when Jonah preached to them, but the people of Jesus' generation would not repent even though someone greater had come to them.

6. Who do you think Jesus was talking about when he said that someone greater than Solomon and Jonah was there? [11:31-32]
   (Answer may vary.) The passage indicates that Jesus was talking about himself. He was greater than Solomon and Jonah.

7. What do you think the Queen of the South and the people of Nineveh would condemn that generation for doing? [11:32]
   (Answer may vary.) They would probably condemn them for not believing what Jesus was teaching them.

8. Why did people put a lamp on a lampstand? [11:33]
   They put it on a lampstand so that people who came into the building could see the light.

9. What did Jesus say about the eye? [11:34]
   It was the lamp of the body.

10. When a person's eye was good, what was true about his whole body? [11:34]
    His whole body was full of light.

11. What did Jesus warn the crowd about? [11:35]
    Jesus warned the crowd to watch out that the light in them was not darkness.

12. What do you think Jesus meant when he spoke about the eye being the lamp of the body and when he warned them to make sure that the light in them was not darkness? [11:35]
    (Answer may vary.) Perhaps he was speaking about listening to the truth and believing it. Jesus was speaking the truth, and he was warning the people that if they did not believe what he was teaching them, then they would believe things that were false.

13. What did Jesus say about a person whose whole body was full of light? [11:36]
    That person's whole body would be bright like when a lamp shone on it.

14. What do you think Jesus meant when he said that if the whole body was full of light, then it would be like when a lamp shone its brightness on the person? [11:36]
    (Answer may vary.) Perhaps Jesus meant that the person's whole life will be affected by the truth.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ A man wanted his brother to divide the inheritance with him, and he asked Jesus to tell his brother to do that. [12:13]
- ☐ Jesus warned the crowd to stay away from greedy desires because life does not consist of having a lot of possessions. [12:15]
- ☐ Jesus told a parable about a man who was greedy. Jesus asked what would happen to all that he collected in the end when the man died. It is more important to be rich toward God. [12:16-21]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. What did the man ask Jesus to do in verse 13? [12:13]
   The man asked Jesus to tell his brother to do what he wanted him to do: to divide the inheritance with him.

2. What do you think Jesus meant when he asked who had appointed him to be judge or mediator over the man and his brother? [12:14]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps Jesus meant that he had not come to settle people's disagreements with one another. He had come for something more important than that.

3. What warning did Jesus give? [12:15]
   Jesus warned the people to be on their guard against all greedy desires.

4. What do you think Jesus meant when he said that a person's life did not consist of the abundance of possessions? [12:15]
   (Answer may vary.) He may have meant that life is about more than having a lot of possessions.

5. In verse 16, what did Jesus begin to do? [12:16]
   He began to tell the people a parable.

6. In the parable, what do you think the rich man meant when he said that he had no place to store his crops? [12:17-18]
   (Answer may vary.) Because he wanted to tear down his barns and build larger ones, that indicates that the barns he already had were not big enough for all his crops.

7. In Jesus' parable, what was the rich man going to do because his fields yielded so much? [12:18]
   He was going to pull down his barns and build bigger ones, then store his grain and other things in the bigger barns.

8. Then what did the rich man plan to do? [12:19]
   He planned to rest easy, eat, drink, and be merry.

9. What did God say to the rich man? [12:20]
   He called him foolish and that that his soul was required of him that night. He asked who would get the things the rich man had have prepared.

10. What do you think God meant when he said that the man's soul was required of him that night? [12:20]
    (Answer may vary.) He probably meant that the man would die that night.

11. What did Jesus say about a person who stored up treasure for himself and was not rich toward God? [12:21]
    Such a person was like the man in the parable.

12. What do you think it means to be rich toward God? [12:21]
    (Answer may vary.) It probably means to love God and to use one's possessions to do good to others. Perhaps it means to have a lot of the eternal things that God wants us to have, such as faith, good works, love for others, and the desire to glorify God.

13:22-30

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Someone asked Jesus if only a few people would be saved. [13:23]
- ☐ Jesus told the people to make efforts to enter through the narrow door. [13:24]
- ☐ Jesus explained that once the door is shut, the owner of the house will say he does not know those who knock and will call them evil doers. [13:25-27]
- ☐ Jesus said that Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, the prophets, and people from the east, west, north, and south would be seated at a table in the kingdom of God. [13:28-29]
- ☐ Jesus said that those who were least important would be first, and those who were most important would be last. [13:30]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. When asked if many would be saved, what did Jesus answer? [13:22-24]
   He said they should struggle to enter through the narrow door, because many people will try to enter and will not be able to enter.

2. What will the owner of the house say to those who come after the door is locked? [13:25]
   The owner will say he does not know them or where they came from.

3. What reasons will people give that the owner should know them? [13:26]
   They will say that they ate and drank in front of him and that he taught in their streets.

4. Who do you think the owner of the house was? [13:25-26]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps Jesus was saying he was the owner. Or perhaps Jesus was saying God the Father was the owner.

5. What will the owner say to those people who did not get inside? [13:27]
   He will say he does not know who they are or where they came from. He will say they are evil doers.

6. What will the people do who were thrown outside and were not able to enter God's kingdom? [13:28]
   They will cry and gnash their teeth.

7. Why do you think they would gnash their teeth? [13:28]
   (Answer may vary.) Perhaps because they would be afraid and anxious about what would happen to them. Perhaps because they would be very angry with the owner for not letting them in.

8. Who will sit at the dinner table in the kingdom of God? [13:28-29]
   Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, the prophets, and many from the east, west, north, and south.

9. What did Jesus say about the first and the last in God's kingdom? [13:30]
   Those who were last would be first, and those who were first would be last.

10. What do you think Jesus meant when he said the last would be first, and those who were first would be last? [13:30]
    (Answer may vary.) This appears to mean that those who are unimportant now will be very important then, and those who are very important now will be unimportant then.

15:11-32

Background: When tax collectors and other sinners went to listen to Jesus, some of the religious leaders criticized Jesus for welcoming those sinners. Then Jesus told two parables about people who had lost something valuable and then were full of joy when they found it. He ended each of those parables saying that there was even more joy in heaven when a sinner repented.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

   He asked his father to give him his inheritance.

   He hired himself out to feed another man's pigs.

6. Why did the son want to eat what the pigs ate? [15:16]
   He was very hungry, and no one gave him anything to eat.

7. How was the son’s life different from the lives of his father’s servants? [15:17]
   His father’s servants had plenty to eat, but he was dying of hunger.

8. When he began to think clearly, what did the younger son decide to do? [15:18-19]
   He decided to go and confess his sin to his father and ask to be hired as one of his servants.

   He ran toward his son and hugged and kissed him.

10. What do you think the son meant when he said he had sinned against heaven and against his father? [15:21]

    He told them to bring and kill it.

    The father came out and pleaded with the older son.

20. What was the older son's complaint to his father? [15:29]
    The older son complained that he had worked like a slave for his father and always did what his father commanded, but his father had never given him a goat to have a feast with his friends.

21. Why did the older son think that the father should not have killed the fattened calf for the younger son? [15:30]
    He thought this because the younger son had used up his father's money by going to prostitutes.

22. What was the father's response to the older son? [15:31]
    He said that the older son was always with him. The father said that all he had also belonged to his son.

23. What do you think the father meant when he said that the other son was dead and was now alive, and that he was lost and had now been found? [15:32]
    (Answer may vary.) He probably meant that when his younger son was away and he had no way to be with him, it felt like his son was dead or lost. But now his son was with him.

24. What do you think Jesus was teaching about God when he told this parable? [15:13-27]
    (Answer may vary.) One of the things Jesus was teaching is that God is very happy when a sinner repents of his sins and turns to God.

16:19-31

Background: In this section Jesus told a parable. One of the characters in the parable was Abraham. Abraham was an ancestor of the people of Israel. In the parable, Abraham mentioned Moses and the prophets. Moses and the prophets wrote many of the books of the Old Testament.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ There was a poor man named Lazarus and a rich man. [16:19-20]
- ☐ The rich man died and was tormented in Hades, and Lazarus died and was carried by angels to Abraham's side. [16:22-23]
- ☐ The rich man begged Abraham to send Lazarus to help him, but Abraham said he could not. [16:25-26]
- ☐ The rich man begged Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his brothers. [16:27]
- ☐ Abraham said that the brothers would not be persuaded even if someone rose from the dead. [16:31]

Part 2

Answer the following questions.

1. How did Jesus describe the rich man in his story? [16:19]
   The rich man was well dressed and lived in luxury every day.

2. How did Jesus describe the man he called Lazarus? [16:20]
   Lazarus was a beggar, and he was covered with sores.

3. What clue did Jesus give about Lazarus' strength? [16:20]
   People laid him at the rich man's gate. This probably shows that Lazarus could not walk far.

4. What did Lazarus wish he could do, and what did that tell us about the rich man? [16:21]
   Lazarus wished he could eat the scraps of food that fell from the rich man's table. This indicated that the rich man was not helping Lazarus.

5. In Jesus' story, what happened to Lazarus when he died? [16:22]
   Lazarus was carried by angels to Abraham's side.

6. What happened to the rich man when he died? [16:23]
   He went to Hades, and he was in torment. He saw Abraham far away with Lazarus at his side.

   He asked to have Lazarus bring him a little water because he was in anguish in the flame.

8. What did Abraham say about how the rich man's situation and Lazarus's situation had changed? [16:25]
   When they were alive, the rich man received good things and Lazarus received bad things, but now the rich man was in agony and Lazarus was comforted.

9. Why could Abraham not send Lazarus to help the rich man? [16:26]
   He could not send Lazarus to the rich man because there was a great chasm between them that no one could cross.

10. What was the second request that the rich man made to Abraham? [16:27-28]
    He asked Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his brothers so they would not come to this place of torment.

11. What do you think Abraham meant when he said that the rich man's brothers should listen to Moses and the prophets? [16:29]
    (Answer may vary.) He probably meant that the rich man's brothers should read or listen to what Moses and the prophets wrote in the scriptures.

12. What did the rich man think needed to happen for his brothers to repent? [16:30]
    He thought that they would repent if someone who had died would go and talk to them.

13. Abraham said that if they would not listen to Moses and the prophets, what else would not persuade them? [16:31]
    They would not be persuaded even if someone rose from the dead.

17:11-19

Background: Leprosy was a terrible skin disease. People who had leprosy had to stay far away from other people so that others would not also get the disease. If a person thought he was cured of leprosy, he had to go show himself to a priest. If the person had been healed (cleansed) of the leprosy, the priest would approve him to go back to his community.

One of the men with leprosy in this passage was from Samaria, a land near to Israel. Samaritans were usually despised by Jews.

Read the passage.

Part 1

Tell in your own words what you just read in these verses.

- ☐ Ten men who had leprosy called out to Jesus and asked him to have mercy on them. [17:11-13]
- ☐ Jesus told them to go and show themselves to the priests, and as they went, they were healed. [17:14]
- ☐ One man came back to Jesus, glorifying God and thanking Jesus. [17:15-16]
- ☐ That man was a Samaritan. [17:16]
- ☐ Jesus told the man, "Go, your faith has made you whole." [17:19]

Part 2

Answer the following questions from the specified verses.

1. [17:11-12] What happened as Jesus was entering a village?
   Ten men who had leprosy met him.

2. [17:12] Where do you think the men were?
   (Answer may vary.) The passage says they stood far away from Jesus. They were probably outside of the village because they had leprosy.

3. [17:13] What did the ten men who had leprosy call Jesus?
   They called him Master (as well as by his name, Jesus).

4. [17:13] Why do you think the men asked Jesus to have mercy on them?
   They had probably heard that Jesus was a healer, and they wanted him to heal them.

5. [17:14] What did Jesus tell them?
   He told them to go and show themselves to the priests.

6. [17:14] What happened to the men as they went?
   They were cleansed (which meant they were healed).

7. [17:15] What did one of the men do?
   He went back to Jesus and glorified God with a loud voice.

8. [17:16] What did that man do when he returned to Jesus?
   He bowed down with his face to the ground, and he thanked Jesus.

9. [17:17-18] Why do you think Jesus asked where the other nine were?
   (Answer may vary.) He seemed to be pointing out that they did not give glory to God. Only the man who came back gave glory to God.

10. [17:16, 18] Why do you think Luke mentioned that the man was a Samaritan, and Jesus called the man a foreigner?
    (Answer may vary.) Luke and Jesus were probably showing that it was not a Jew who praised God and thanked Jesus. The people listening to Jesus were likely to be surprised by this.

11. [17:19] What did Jesus say had healed the man?
    The man's faith had healed him.

   A Pharisee and a tax collector went up into the temple to pray.

   He thanked God that he was not like people who were various kinds of sinners. Then he told God about how he fasted and tithed.

4. [18:11-12] What do you think this shows about the Pharisee's opinion about his own righteousness compared to other people?
   (Answer may vary.) This seems to show that the Pharisee thought that he was more righteous than other people.

5. [18:13] What did the tax collector pray?
   He prayed to God to be merciful to him. He called himself a sinner.

6. [18:13] How did the tax collector show that he was ashamed of his sin?

Answer the following questions from the specified verses.

1. [19:28] Where was Jesus going?
   Jesus was going to Jerusalem.

2. [19:30] What did Jesus tell two of his disciples to bring him?
   He told them to bring him a colt that had never been ridden. They were told to untie it and bring it to him.

3. [19:31] What did Jesus want them to say to anyone who asked why they were untying the colt?
   He wanted them to say that the Lord needed it.

4. [19:33] Who asked why they were untying the colt?
   The colt's owners asked.

5. [19:35] What did the disciples do with the colt?
   They brought it to Jesus, put their cloaks on it, and set Jesus on it.

6. [19:36] Why do you think people spread their cloaks out on the road?
   (Answer may vary.) It was probably a way to honor Jesus.

7. [19:37] Why was the crowd of disciples praising God?
   They were praising him for the mighty works they had seen.

8. [19:37] What mighty works do you think they had seen?

9. [19:38] What did the crowd cry out as Jesus descended the Mount of Olives?
   They cried out to bless the King who came in the name of the Lord. They also cried out about peace in heaven and glory in the highest.

10. [19:38] Why do you think the people said this?
   (Answer may vary.) They seem to have said it because they believed Jesus was that King, or that he was not just an ordinary man.

11. [19:39] What did some of the Pharisees want Jesus to do?
   They wanted him to rebuke his disciples.

12. [19:40] What did Jesus say would happen if the people were silent?
   He said that the stones would cry out.

13. [19:40] What do you think Jesus meant when he said that the stones would cry out if the people were silent?
   (Answer may vary.) He probably meant that it was right for the people to be so joyful, to praise God, and to proclaim that Jesus was the king. It was so important that it had to be done.

14. [19:41-42] What did Jesus do as he drew near to the city?
   Jesus wept because he knew what was going to happen.

15. [19:42] What did Jesus wish the people of Jerusalem had known?
   He wished that they had known what would bring them peace.

16. [19:42] What else did Jesus say in verse 42?
   The things that would bring the people peace were now hidden from their eyes.

17. [19:42] What do you think Jesus meant when he said the things that would bring them peace were now hidden from their eyes?
   (Answer may vary.) He may have meant that they were blind to recognizing him as the Messiah (or Prince of Peace) that they had been waiting for. Or maybe he meant that they were blind to understanding that believing in him would bring them peace.

18. [19:43] What would Jerusalem's enemies do to them?
   They would build a barricade around Jerusalem, they would surround them from every side, and they would close in on them.

19. [19:43] What problem do you think this would cause for the people of Jerusalem?
   (Answer may vary.) It sounds like the people of Jerusalem would not be able to get away from the city and run away from their enemies.

20. [19:44] What did Jesus say the enemies would do to the people and the city?
   The enemies would kill them and their children. They would not leave one stone on top of another stone.

21. [19:44] What do you think it means not to leave one stone on top of another stone?

    He was teaching there every day.

30. [19:48] Why could they not do this?
    They could not do this because the people were listening closely to all Jesus said.

31. [19:48] Why do you think this stopped the priests and other leaders from destroying Jesus?
    (Answer may vary.) It probably stopped them because they were afraid of what the people would think about them or do to them for destroying a popular speaker that some believed was the Messiah.
