Bible In Every Language

In Matthew 28:19-20, God commanded the church to make disciples and teach them to observe all his commandments. Having God's Word in your heart language is the foundation for this to happen. We believe that just as this mandate to the church applies to every believer in every language, so does the responsibility of making sure God's Word is available. This website provides translation processes, resources and tools to help you make God's Word available in multiple forms (written, oral, visual, or tactile).

The Translations web page opens to translations in English.

The screenshot shows the Wycliffe Associates website's "Translations" page. The header features the Wycliffe logo (a stylized 'W' in red, green, and blue) and the word "Wycliffe" followed by "ASSOCIATES". The navigation menu includes links for "Processes", "Resources", "Translations" (which is highlighted in yellow), "Tools", "Support", and a language dropdown set to "English". The main title "Translations" is displayed prominently in large white letters against a dark background. On the left, a sidebar titled "Languages" includes a search bar and a dropdown menu for "All Texts and Resources". Below this are lists of languages: Abadi (kbt), Abau (aau), and Abuainā (tbg-x-abuainā). The main content area is titled "English" and displays the "Unlocked Literal Bible (ULB)" with "Read on Web" and "Download" buttons. A small icon of a person with a checkmark is present. Below this, sections for "Old Testament" and "New Testament" are shown, each with a small downward arrow indicating they are expandable.

Chapter 1

¹ In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. ² The earth was without form and empty. Darkness was upon the surface of the deep. The Spirit of God was moving above the surface of the waters.

³ God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. ⁴ God saw the light, that it was good. He divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." This was evening and morning, the first day.

⁶ God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." ⁷ God made the expanse and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse. It was so. ⁸ God called the expanse "sky." This was evening and morning, the second day.

⁹ God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear." It was so. ¹⁰ God called the dry land "earth," and the gathered waters he called "seas." He saw that it was good.

¹¹ God said, "Let the earth sprout vegetation: plants yielding seed and fruit trees bearing fruit whose seed is in the fruit, each according to its own kind." It was so. ¹² The earth produced fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." ^[1]

^① 27 God created man in his own image. In his own image he created him. Male and female he created them.

^① 28 God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply. Fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves upon the earth."

^① 29 God said, "See, I have given you every plant yielding seed which is upon the surface of all the earth, and every tree with fruit which has seed in it. They will be food to you. ³⁰ To every beast of the earth, to every bird of the heavens, and to everything that creeps upon the earth, and to every creature that has the breath of life I have given every green plant for food." It was so.

³¹ God saw everything that he had made. Behold, it was very good. This was evening and morning, the sixth day.

1:26 ^[1]Some ancient copies have: ... Over the livestock, over all the animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.

Chapter 12

¹ Now about that time Herod the king laid hands on some who belonged to the church so that he might mistreat them. ² He killed James the brother of John with the sword. ³ After he saw that this pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. That was during the days of unleavened bread. ⁴ After arresting him, he put him in prison, assigning him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him; he was intending to bring him to the people after the Passover. ⁵ So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer was made earnestly to God for him by those in the church. ⁶ On the night before Herod was going to bring him out for trial, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, while guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. ⁷ Behold, an angel of the Lord suddenly appeared by him, and a light shone in the prison cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him and said, "Get up quickly," and his chains fell off his hands. ⁸ The angel said to him, "Gird yourself and put on your sandals." Peter did so. The angel said to him, "Put on your outer garment and follow me." ⁹ So Peter followed the angel and went out. He did not know that what was done by the angel was real. He thought he was seeing a vision. ¹⁰ After they had passed by the first guard and the second, they came to the iron gate that led into the city; it opened for them by itself. They went out and went down a street, and the angel left him right away. ¹¹ When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting." ¹² When he realized this, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John, also called Mark, where many people had gathered and were praying. ¹³ When he knocked at the door of the gate, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴ When she recognized Peter's voice, out of joy she failed to open the gate; instead, she came running into the room; she reported that Peter was standing at the gate. ¹⁵ So they said to her, "You are insane." But she insisted that it was so.
