

Release Early, Revise Often

When should a translation be shared with the language community?

When the translators have made it the best they can
at the time

A woman in denim overalls and rubber boots is working in a field, using a hoe to tend to rows of young plants. Another person is visible in the background, also working in the field. The scene is set in a rural area with trees and a fence in the distance.

Ecclesiastes 11:2, 4

Why might some translators be hesitant?

What are some concerns?

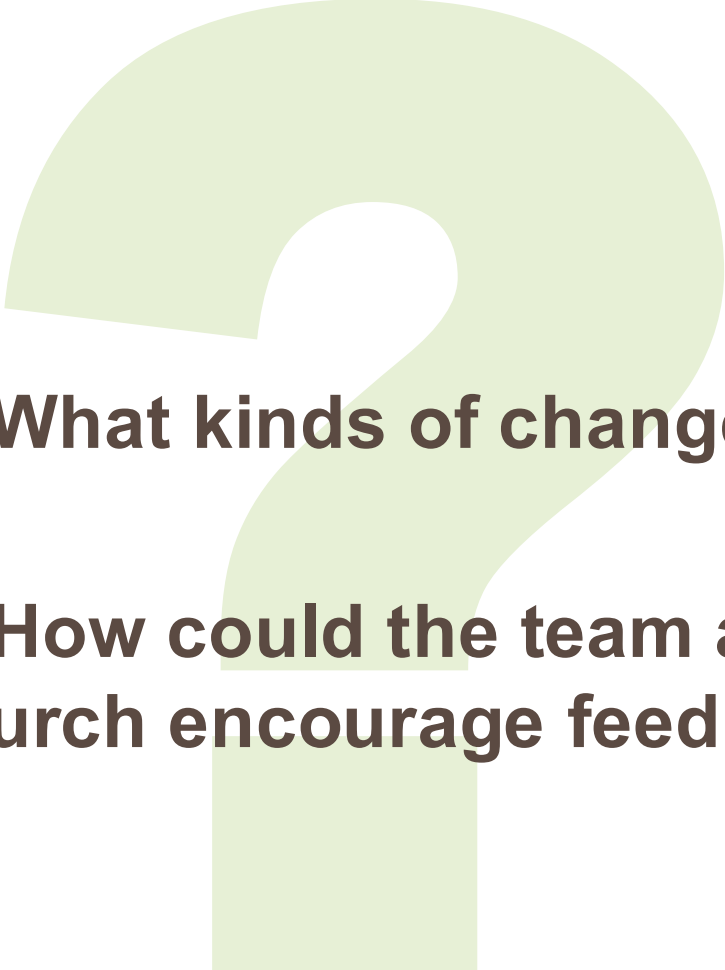

Feedback

Corrections

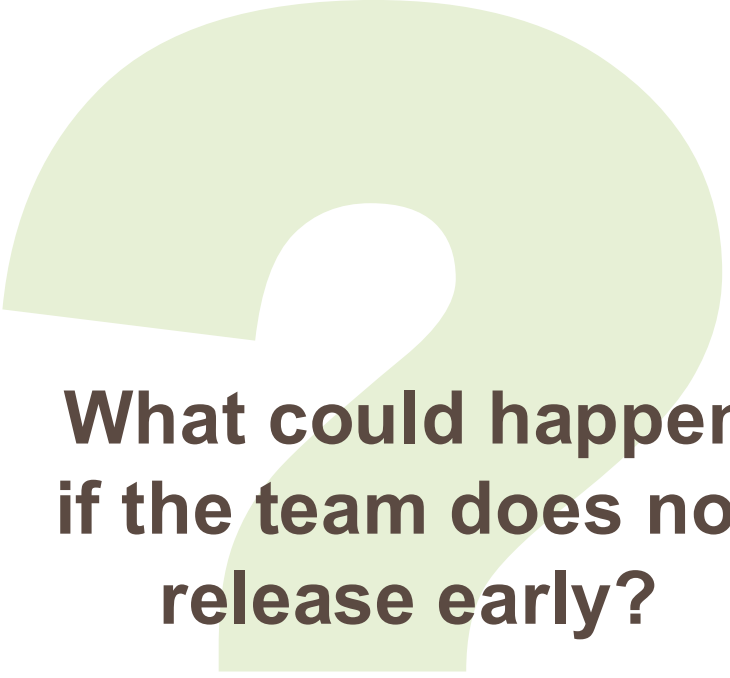

Improvements

Updates

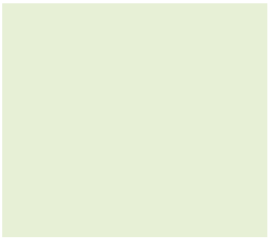

What kinds of changes?

How could the team and church encourage feedback?

What could happen
if the team does not release early?

Language
changes

